PERTINENT INFORMATION
13. RUDKO, Mikhail SUBJECT: <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> SW #1 to the RIS; addressed to the M. KOBIEFF, Blankenfeldstrasse 14, Berlin G-2; return address Irma Friedlaender, Amsegerstrasse 24/II, Munich 8; mailed from the Hauptbahnhof on 26 April at 2230 hours. Mikhail RUDKO continues to remain in Munich and works as the deputy director of ZUDAK, i.e., the United Ukrainian American Relief Committee. However the office of this organization has been transferred from Schomburgstrasse 9 to Augustenstrasse to that building in which until recently the Institute for Studies of the USSR had been located. Mikhail RUDKO is a Galician by extraction; during the war he had been assigned to some Wehrmacht propaganda unit; from 1945 to 1946 he was the commandant of the "La Garde" DP camp in the town of Aschaffenburg in Bavaria. In 1946 he transferred to work for ZRO and later as the director of ZUDAK in the port city of Bremerhaven. In the years 1949 to 1951 RUDKO had wished to immigrate to the USA but he had some political misunderstandings with the Americans. The exact nature of these are known only to himself since he is a very discreet person. He has been in the ZUDAK headquarters since 1952. He is currently supporting the European director of this organization Dr. Anton FERENHINTS who did not agree with the wishes of the chief director of ZUDAK headquarters in Philadelphia, Dr. Walter (Vladimir) GALAN. The latter had wished to replace FERENHINTS, during the latter part of last year, with the well-known Molynite leader and intelligence man Yaroslav HAYVAS who had been in Munich, had visited Vienna and then wanted to "liquidate" FERENHINTS; however, RUDKO upheld FERENHINTS and as a result in early March HAYVAS departed from Germany. RUDKO knowingly supports this line inasmuch as he is very closely associated with UNVA and each week meets with the spiritual "father of UNVA," the priest Ivan HRINTON. RUDKO receives a good salary and has two official cars (at his disposal). He shows up at virtually no official gatherings and in general is averse to making official (public) appearances. He has both American and English friends concerning whom B. is collecting concrete information.
